

Ducks Keep to Themselves

(Haiku Sequence)

Busybodies pry
Into matters not their own;
Most waterfowl don't.

Have you ever heard
Of a duck spreading gossip?
No. They only quack.

Ducks keep to themselves
'Cause they have lives of their own.
(Also, they can't talk.)

They swim, and they fly.
They pursue creature comforts.
They eat seeds in peace.

Ducks keep to themselves.
Lake Honor's ducks just walk by Obliviously.

Most of them don't peep.
That one psycho duck just laughs.
They follow routines.

Don't bother their young
Or harass one of them, and
They'll leave you alone.

I have mixed feelings
About folks, but I like ducks.
Ducks keep to themselves.
